

Withdrawal offers update – Challenger mortgage funds

24 July 2009

This document contains useful information about the withdrawal offers for the Challenger mortgage funds and any action you may need to take. It's important to note that if you do not wish to make a withdrawal from your investment in the relevant Fund, you do not need to take any further action.

The past year has been a difficult time for financial markets and the broader economy. Liquidity remains constrained in many sectors, including mortgage funds, however cash levels within the Funds have improved slightly since our last withdrawal offers in April/May 2009.

We are opening our next withdrawal offers for the Funds from Friday 24 July 2009 to 3pm (Sydney time) on Friday 21 August 2009 and offering an amount of money for withdrawals that is comparable with previous withdrawal offers. The method of making a request for withdrawal is the same as for the April/May 2009 withdrawal offers.

Challenger mortgage funds withdrawal offers

We will make withdrawal offers to investors in each of the following funds which will be open from Friday 24 July 2009 until Friday 21 August 2009:

- Challenger Howard Mortgage Fund
- Challenger Howard Wholesale Mortgage Fund
- Challenger Mortgage Plus Trust¹
- Challenger Professional Mortgage Plus Trust¹
(each a 'Fund' and together referred to as the 'Funds').

If you would like to request a withdrawal, please read the following information, complete the enclosed withdrawal offer request form and return the form to Challenger as indicated below. We must receive your withdrawal request before 3pm (Sydney time) on Friday 21 August 2009 if you wish to participate in these withdrawal offers.

Withdrawal offers dates

The offers will open on Friday 24 July 2009 and will close on Friday 21 August 2009 (at 3pm Sydney time). Withdrawal requests which are incomplete or received after 3pm on the closing date will not be accepted. We reserve the right to cancel the withdrawal offers, close the offers early or extend the period of the offers.

How the offers will work

We will make 5% of all investors' units in the Funds available for withdrawal. Therefore, investors who participate in the offer will receive a maximum of 5% of their unit holding paid out as a withdrawal, subject to a minimum withdrawal payment. If all investors take up these offers, we will pay out the following amounts to investors:

Fund	Max. withdrawal	Max. amount to be paid out
Challenger Howard Mortgage Fund	5%	$129 million
Challenger Howard Wholesale Mortgage Fund	5%	$72 million*
Challenger Mortgage Plus Trust	5%	$0.9 million*
Challenger Professional Mortgage Plus Trust	5%	$0.9 million*

* These Funds invest in the Challenger Howard Mortgage Fund, therefore the amounts provided here are included in the total of $129 million being offered by the Challenger Howard Mortgage Fund. The maximum amount to be made available for all Funds is $129 million (funded from cash reserves).

The withdrawal will be calculated effective the closing date of the offer, which is Friday 21 August 2009, with redemptions paid within 10 business days of the closing date.

Minimum withdrawal payment

We will apply a minimum withdrawal amount such that all investors who participate in this offer receive a minimum payment of $500 (or their full balance if it is less than $500).

How to make a withdrawal request

For a withdrawal request to be valid, we must receive the enclosed form correctly completed by 3pm (Sydney time) on Friday 21 August 2009.

Please return the completed form in the enclosed reply paid envelope to: Challenger, Reply Paid 3698, Sydney NSW 2001.

Commonly asked questions

Why did Challenger amend the withdrawal procedure for the Funds?

As has been widely reported, the past year has been a difficult time for investment markets. In the latter part of 2008, many investors reduced their exposure to managed funds (including mortgage funds). An unintended consequence of the Federal Government's announcement in mid October 2008 to guarantee bank deposits was that redemptions from the Funds increased to a level that we were unable to meet through the Funds' available sources of liquidity.

As a result of these conditions, Challenger, as responsible entity for the Funds, temporarily amended the withdrawal process for the Funds in order to protect the interests of all unitholders and to ensure that all unitholders are treated equally.

Why can I only access 5% of my investment?

Liquidity in the mortgage sector continues to be significantly lower than has historically been the case. As a result the Funds have lower cash levels than in the past. We have made available a withdrawal amount that will ensure that subsequent to the withdrawal payments, the Funds will continue to retain sufficient liquidity to manage the portfolio effectively, pay out distributions and enhance our ability to make future withdrawal offers.

Will you be offering 5% for withdrawal every quarter?

Based on the current liquidity in the Funds, and expected future loan discharges, we expect to make withdrawal offers of at least 5% of investors' unit holdings every quarter for the next 12 months. While our ability to make such offers will depend on the liquidity within the Funds at the time of each offer, we are confident (based on the current liquidity in the Funds and expected future loan discharges) that we will be able to offer 5% for withdrawal in each of the next four quarters. We will provide more information prior to the next withdrawal offer².

Do I need to make a withdrawal request?

No, there is no obligation for you to lodge a withdrawal request. If you do not lodge a withdrawal request, no activity will occur on your account and your unit balance will remain the same. If you are unsure about whether or not to make a withdrawal request, we recommend you seek advice from your financial planner.

Can I make a withdrawal on behalf of an Estate?

Yes. For Estate policies, the bank account provided must be in the name of the Estate, otherwise the payment will be made payable to the Estate by cheque.

By when must my withdrawal form be received?

To be considered in these withdrawal offers, your completed withdrawal form must be received by Challenger by 3pm (Sydney time) on Friday 21 August 2009.

What happens if my form is late?

We cannot accept any withdrawal requests after 3pm (Sydney time) on Friday 21 August 2009. Any requests received after this time will be returned to you.

How will I know if my form has been received?

We will send you a letter acknowledging our receipt of your withdrawal request. If you do not receive a letter from us, please contact us on 13 35 66 prior to 3pm (Sydney time) on 21 August 2009. Once the withdrawal offer has closed, we will send a letter to all investors who have requested a withdrawal, advising the amount they will receive.

When will I receive the proceeds from my withdrawal?

We expect that your withdrawal payment will be paid to your nominated bank account within 10 days of the closing date of the offer.

What are the tax consequences of withdrawing money from the Fund?

Depending on the Fund you are invested in, withdrawal amounts will include a capital component and in certain cases an income component. As such, we recommend you seek taxation advice regarding any withdrawal proceeds.

What happens to the other 95% of my investment?

Challenger remains committed to the prudent management of the Funds. As such, your investment continues to be invested in a well diversified pool of around 2,300 mortgages. The Funds are being actively managed in accordance with their investment objectives in order to deliver regular income and capital stability. In addition, Challenger continues to investigate options to increase liquidity within the Funds.

For more information

Before making a decision about whether or not to request a withdrawal for all or part of your investment, we recommend that you speak with your financial planner. If you have any further questions regarding the withdrawal offer, please contact our Investor Services team on 13 35 66.
