8. Your agreement and declaration

I agree:

If I have invested into an illiquid investment option, or an investment option I have has become illiquid, it may take longer than 30 days to transfer out of the investment option.

There are times when Navigator Australia Limited or NULIS Nominees (Australia) Limited (each, as applicable, the "Provider") might not be able to process my rollover instructions, for example when:

- there are liquidity issues in the investment
- the fund manager suspends transactions
- the Provider can't obtain a price
- the instruction is incomplete, and
- unforeseen circumstances prevent the Provider from using our administration systems.

Before requesting this rollover, I have considered the information in the relevant Product Disclosure Statement or How to Guide, about the investments I have selected and the management of my account. These documents are available at investinfo.com.au/premiumchoice.

Signature of Investor or Attorney

Name

	Date (DD/MM/YY)

I understand that after the Provider has transferred proceeds to the nominated bank account, it will not be responsible for any delay or misuse of those funds which may occur after that time. Nor is the Provider responsible for any loss or action arising from such a delay or misuse.

Term Deposits

I understand that if I wish to access my Term Deposit prior to maturity I will be required to provide 31 days notice (in addition to the Provider's processing time) and pay the Term Deposit provider any economic costs associated with early access to my investment prior to maturity.

UK pension transfer

I understand that if part of my benefit contains a UK transfer amount, there may be UK tax implications.

If signed under Power of Attorney: Attorneys must attach a certified copy of the Power of Attorney and identification for themselves (go to investinfo.com.au/premiumchoice to download the relevant identification form) if not already supplied. The Attorney hereby certifies that he/she has not received notice of any limitation or revocation of his/her Power of Attorney and is also authorised to sign this form.

Power of Attorney documents can't be accepted by fax or email.

Important information on rollovers

Please check through the following items which may help highlight some issues you need to take into consideration before requesting your rollover.

1. Are you closing your account with PremiumChoice?

If you have insurance

If you have premiums for any insurance deducted from the account you want to close, your rollover may cause this insurance to be cancelled. Please call us to check if you're eligible to continue this insurance, and discuss your payment options.

If you've made personal contributions

If you've made personal contributions and believe you are eligible to receive unpaid government co-contributions, you should advise the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) on 13 10 20 of an alternative superannuation fund.

If you wish to split current year concessional contributions to your spouse

If you want to split current year concessional contributions to your spouse, or if you wish to split prior year concessional contributions to your spouse, you'll need to submit a Contributions splitting application form with your Rollover request form. This form is available at investinfo.com.au/premiumchoice

If you're intending to claim a tax deduction for your contributions

If you've made personal contributions and are intending on claiming a deduction, you'll need to provide us with a notice of intent to claim form before rolling over your benefit. If you don't you may lose your entitlement to claim a tax deduction.

2. Rollover requirements

If you don't provide all the required information, your rollover may be delayed.

You need to make sure that:

- the fund to which you are rolling over your benefit is a complying superannuation fund
- unless the fund is an SMSF registered by APRA prior to 2000, an ABN and ESA must be supplied and the fund must be registered by APRA or the ATO, and
- where an ABN and ESA are not supplied or the fund details don't match those on 'Super Fund Lookup' (a register of regulated funds), we may ask you to provide further evidence of the complying status before we can rollover your benefit.

If you aren't sure about any of the details we've requested about your rollover fund, please contact them to check the information before sending in your request.

3. Certification

You'll need to get your documents certified by a person authorised to certify identification documents, under the Statutory Declaration Regulations (1993).

A person approved to certify identification documents must provide the following information on each copy:

- If single page: 'This is a true copy of the original document(s) which I have sighted';
- If multiple pages: 'I certify this and the following (number of pages) are a true copy of the original which I have sighted.'
- Each following page must be initialled and dated.
- Write their
 - full name
 - contact address and telephone number
 - date of certification
 - signature
- The capacity in which they have certified the document (eg justice of the peace, registered pharmacist, judge, magistrate, police officer etc)
- Add the official stamp or seal of the certifier's organisation.

A full list of people authorised to certify documents is available in the Proof of identity guide at investinfo.com.au/premiumchoice

Notice of intent to claim or vary a deduction for personal super contributions

If you want to change or make more than one claim, use a separate form each time.
